Trainers' Showmanship Challenge
And Calcutta Auction

To Benefit VQHYA

Nominate your trainer for $25 to participate in the Trainers' Showmanship Challenge to be run on Saturday night after the last class. Trainers can use any horse available and will be judged solely on showmanship so they don't need to dress up or have all those bands just right!

There will be a Calcutta Auction on how the trainers place. 50% of auction proceeds will be split evenly between the winning bidders of 1st Place, 3rd place and 6th place.

Trainers will be individually introduced before the class and the audience will have a chance to place their bids, hoping their trainer comes in 1st, 3rd or 6th and that as winning bidder, they'll take home some cash.

Should be a lot of fun so make sure to nominate your trainer before Saturday night in the show office!
